

Salute Luncheon for Thursday, January 21, 2010
Mullen

Front Row (left to right)

Ruthie Winig, SVP, Director of Innovation – Mullen

John Fitzgerald, President – Mullen

Gayle Anderson, President & CEO - Winston-Salem Chamber of Commerce

Stephanie Vestal, VP, Human Resources Manager – Mullen

Second Row (left to right)

Peggy Low, Senior Vice President, Technology - Winston-Salem Chamber of Commerce

Rodessa Mitchell, Vice President, Education and Membership - Winston-Salem Chamber of Commerce

Mike Miller, President & Publisher– The Winston-Salem Journal

Third Row (left to right)

Steve Kenney, President - QC Engraving

Terry Barber, Director of Catering – Twin City Quarter

Ron Stephens, Director of Marketing – Twin City Quarter

In 2009, Mullen celebrated its 60th year as a member of the Winston-Salem community. What began as a small advertising agency in 1949 grew alongside the city to become a nationally-recognized, full-service marketing communications agency serving clients including Krispy Kreme, SunTrust Bank, La Quinta Inns and Suites, BASF, and Men's Wearhouse.

As a committed member of the Winston-Salem community, Mullen helps showcase the city's incredible culture by actively supporting local organizations like The Arts Council of Winston-Salem and the Winston-Salem Symphony. And the agency supports the United Way of Forsyth County, Second Harvest Food Bank and The Salvation Army in their efforts to build an even brighter future for our community and the people who call Forsyth County their home.

Mullen is proud to be a part of Winston-Salem's thriving business community and to contribute to the economic vitality of the city.