

Salute Luncheon for Thursday, April 15, 2010
Lowes Foods

Front Row (left to right)

Debbie Williams, Executive Assistant to the President – Lowes Foods

Steve Hall, President – Lowes Foods

Gayle Anderson, President & CEO - Winston-Salem Chamber of Commerce

Steve Kilcoyne, Vice President of Human Resources – Lowes Foods

Second Row (left to right)

Mike Miller, President & Publisher– The Winston-Salem Journal

Rodessa Mitchell, Vice President, Education and Membership - Winston-Salem Chamber of Commerce

Steve Kenney, President - QC Engraving

Third Row (left to right)

Terry Barber, Director of Catering – Twin City Quarter

Jen Prpich, General Manager – Embassy Suites

Jeff Green, Vice President, Sales & Marketing – The Winston-Salem Journal

Founded in 1954, Lowes Foods employs 8500 people and operates 110 stores in North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia. The company is committed to offering fabulous fresh foods and delivering personal attention to each of its customers. They offer programs such as Lowes Foods To Go and Fresh Rewards that focus on saving people time and money in a family-oriented environment.

Lowes Foods is proud to be a responsible and caring member of the communities in which they do business. They have a strong commitment to make them better places in which to live and work. One way they achieve that is by encouraging their employees to become involved in a wide range of community activities in the cities and towns where they work. They also support non-profit groups through donations and sponsorships. The charitable efforts of Lowes Foods are focused on areas that are closely related to our mission, such as eliminating hunger, promoting good nutrition and educating children.