FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

“AN EVENING OF JAZZ WITH CLE THOMPSON”

Winston-Salem, NC – Ed and Melanie Broyhill will host this year’s Horizons’ fundraiser entitled, “An Evening of Jazz with Cle Thompson.” In the past, Cle has worked with many talented individuals, such as legendary film composer, and musical arranger Elmer Bernstein. Her gifted voice has taken her across the states, from New York to Los Angeles. This event takes place at 7 p.m. on Friday, September 24th at 525 N. Hawthorne Road in Winston-Salem. Cle’s soothing jazz will provide a backdrop for courtesy tastings by Childress, Grassy Creek, and Shelton Vineyards. In addition, enjoy pairing your favorite vintage or your favorite beer with appetizers from Tricia’s catering of Lexington. Individual tickets are priced at $60.00.

Change the Date – In honor of Milton Rhodes and the Arts Council’s Gala on September 10th, we have changed our original date to Friday, September 24th.

Cle Thompson - There is a “neon light” quality to Cle Thompson. Maybe it comes from growing up in Chicago where the frozen winds off Lake Michigan make for strong musicians....or it could be the rhythm of urban life that comes from living in big cities like New York, San Francisco, and Los Angeles. For what-ever the reason, Cle sings the blues, and hits the silky notes of uptown jazz like no one else can.

Rural Hall, NC – Horizons Residential Care Center is a private, non-profit organization, providing compassionate care and quality services appropriate to the needs of individuals with developmental disabilities. Horizons’ two facilities, the Atrium in Rural Hall (within Horizons Park), and the Arches on Bethabara Park Boulevard provide a “home-like” setting for children and adults.
