Local Owners Receive Two Sales Achievement Awards Sir Speedy Winston-Salem Top 25 Franchise and Sir Speedy High Point Century Club Award

MISSION VIEJO, Calif., August 17, 2010—Sir Speedy Printing and Marketing Services in Winston-Salem recently received a Top 25 Sales Volume Award recognizing the business as one of the top twenty-five in the worldwide Sir Speedy franchise network. The Sir Speedy Center in High Point received a Century Club Award, placing it in the Top 100 franchises in the entire network worldwide. These awards are based on 2009 annual sales revenues and were announced at the annual Sir Speedy Convention and Vendor Show recently held at the Grand Hyatt San Antonio, July 21-24. Both centers are owned by Art and Dannie Weber and Jody and Dwight Shaw.

“The Webers and Shaws have worked exceptionally hard this past year building their business and I’m very proud of their accomplishments,” said Richard Lowe, president and chief operating officer of Franchise Services, Inc., parent company of Sir Speedy. “Winners of this award exemplify the Sir Speedy brand commitment of helping our customers grow their businesses.”
