

SALEM LEASING CORPORATION

For over forty years, Salem, which is headquartered in Winston-Salem, has provided quality transportation services to its customers throughout the United States. As a recognized leader in the industry, Salem has attained tremendous growth through innovative management and commitment to customer service which has resulted in high customer retention and overall company stability. Its logo symbolizes the Company's continuing goals of excellence in service and transportation.

Salem Leasing Corporation entered the full service leasing business in 1965 as a sister company to one the nation's largest independent truck dealerships. At its inception, Salem joined NationalLease in order to provide its customers with service capabilities on a nationwide basis. In 1982, Salem established Salem Carriers, Inc. and entered the dedicated contract carriage business. As its customer base grew, Salem added additional facilities and currently operates thirty-one facilities in six states.
