

Kilpatrick Stockton, LLP

Kilpatrick Stockton, LLP is a full-service law firm with roots in Winston-Salem that reach back nearly 90 years. Kilpatrick Stockton is proud of Winston-Salem's heritage and is equally excited about the city's opportunity for continued growth.

The firm works with local and national clients in a variety of industries and markets, from the challenging demands of financial transactions and litigation to the disciplines of intellectual property, environmental law, and employment. A close collaboration between the firm's practice areas ensures Kilpatrick Stockton is well positioned to serve all its clients' needs and help them reach their desired goals. At Kilpatrick Stockton, the practice of law is driven by the practice of its principles and values, all focused on priority premium service to its clients. The guiding values the firm embraces include: Firm-Wide Excellence, Traditions of Innovation, Commitment to Trusted Partnership, Sharing Success, and Promoting Diversity.

In the local area, Kilpatrick Stockton continues to make substantial contributions to enhancing the community. The firm has long supported the Chamber, Winston-Salem Business, Inc. and other development initiatives. Its attorneys have held leadership roles at many non-profit organizations. And, it has developed an innovative partnership at Cook Elementary School.

Front Row (left to right)

G. William Joyner III, Partner – Kilpatrick Stockton, LLP

Corena A. Norris-McCluney, Associate – Kilpatrick Stockton, LLP

Peggy Low, Senior Vice President, Technology - Winston-Salem Chamber of Commerce

Stephen R. Berlin, Partner – Kilpatrick Stockton, LLP

Louis W. Doherty, Partner – Kilpatrick Stockton, LLP

Second Row (left to right)

Mike Miller, President & Publisher– The Winston-Salem Journal

Rodessa Mitchell, Vice President of Education and Membership - Winston-Salem Chamber of Commerce

Third Row (left to right)

Terry Barber, Director of Catering – Twin City Quarter

Peggie Munnell, Sales Manager – Twin City Quarter

Steve Kenney, President - QC Engraving